

Financial Assistance with Vet Expenses

FSPCA does not provide veterinary services to animals not in our care. Should you be faced with veterinary expenses you cannot afford, the following organizations may provide financial assistance for medical treatment:

Organization	Description of Assistance Provided
www.redrover.org	Assistance with veterinary bills for companion animals.
www.imom.org	Assistance with veterinary bills for companion animals.
www.thepetfund.com	Assistance with basic, non-emergency veterinary care for companion animals.
www.giveforward.com/pet_medical	An online organization where you can raise money through donations for pet medical expenses.
www.banfieldcharitabletrust.org/pet-owners/	Financial assistance for emergency and preventive vet care, as well as hospice.
www.browndogfoundation.org	Assistance with veterinary bills for dogs needing emergency care.
www.caninecancerawareness.org	Assistance with veterinary bills for dogs with cancer whose owners cannot afford treatment.
www.frankiesfriends.com	Assistance with veterinary bills for pets with promising outcomes whose owners cannot afford treatment.
www.graciesmission.org	Assistance with holistic veterinary care for animals whose owners cannot afford holistic care.
www.paws4acure.org	Assistance with veterinary bills for companion animals.
www.dccfund.org	Works with veterinarians to get treatment for companion animals suffering from cancer.
www.themagicbulletfund.org	Assistance with veterinary bills for companion animals suffering from cancer.
www.themosbyfoundation.org	Assistance with veterinary bills for treatment yet to be incurred.
www.fveap.org	Assistance with emergency vet care for cats only, for seniors, people with disabilities, people who have lost their job, or Good Samaritans who rescue an injured or ill cat or kitten.
www.catsin crisis.org	Assistance with emergency medical care for cats with kidney disease, thyroid disease, cardiac conditions, or neurological or mobility issues.

This list is provided for referral and reference purposes only. FSPCA can make no guarantee that these organizations will provide financial assistance. Each organization has its own application process and may use different criteria to make eligibility determinations. FSPCA cannot assist you in filling out these applications.